Award for Excellence in Research

To strive for the excellence of research, GITM has decided to offer the Awards for Excellence in Research to GITM students who have accomplished outstanding research results. The award will be granted to students who have published papers in peer reviewed international journals and conferences. Once the acceptance letter is received, the student can apply to GITM office for a research award with the following documents prepared: the acceptance letter, the full manuscript of the accepted paper, the completed application form for this award.

The GITM office will organize a committee to evaluate the applications monthly. The award will include an award certificate issued by GITM along with a scholarship. The amount of scholarship is decided by the committee based on the application and guidelines below provided that the GITM has sufficient budget to cover the scholarships. All accepted papers should be written in English to be eligible for the award. The suggested amounts of scholarships will be determined depending on the quality of the paper and the journal. Students are strongly recommended to consult his/her advisor before submitting any paper to a journal or conference.

1. Accepted by an SSCI journal: $20,000-30,000 ²
2. Accepted by an SCI (Expanded) journal: $10,000-20,000 ²
3. Accepted by an EI journal: $5,000-10,000 ²
4. The aforementioned amount of award will be prorated according to the order of the student author listed on the paper.
 - [1] 100% of the award will be granted to the GITM student applicant who is the single author of the paper
 - [2] One half (50%) of the award will be granted to the GITM student applicant who is the second author of the paper
 - [3] One third (33%) of the award will be granted to the GITM student applicant who is the third author of the paper
 - [4] One quarter (25%) of the award will be granted to the GITM student applicant who is the fourth author of the paper
 - [5] One fifth for the fifth author, one sixth for the sixth author, and so on.
5. In case there are multiple ITM student authors on an accepted paper, the award will be granted to only one GITM student, and all GITM student authors contributing to the paper have to negotiate by themselves to decide how to allocate the award.

Note: 1. Check out <http://www.isinet.com/journals/index.html> for SSCI and SCI (Expanded) journal lists and <http://www.engineeringvillage2.org/> for EI journal list.

2. GITM reserves the rights to adjust the amount of the actual awards based on the availability of actual funding.
